Central Transport 2016 Holiday Schedule

Warren, Michigan, November 11 2016 - Central Transport LLC, one of the nation’s most technologically advanced less-than-truckload (LTL) carriers, has announced its 2016 holiday schedule.

United States Operations:

- Thursday, November 24, 2016, Central Transport will be closed in observation of Thanksgiving.
- Friday, November 25, 2016, Central Transport will be closed in observation of Thanksgiving.

United States & Canadian Operations:

- Christmas Eve, Saturday, December 24, 2016 Central Transport will be closed.
- Monday, December 26, 2016 Central Transport will be closed in observation of Christmas Day.
- Monday, January 2, 2017 Central Transport will be closed in observation of New Year’s Day.

Canadian Operations:

- Monday, December 26, 2016 Central Transport will be closed in observation of Boxing Day.

These dates reflect our current operating schedules and are subject to change. Any updates will be posted immediately, so please check back as the dates of these holidays approach.

If you have any questions about these recent changes, please contact a Customer Service Representative at 586-467-1900 or contact your Central Transport Account Executive.

About Central Transport - Central Transport is a privately owned full-service asset-based, transportation provider offering supply chain solutions across North America. Central Transport provides regional, inter-regional and long-haul LTL (less-than-truckload) services, cross-docking, consolidation and pool distribution services, as well as customized value-added supply chain services. Central Transport is based in suburban Detroit and is a Forbes 500 private company.